Steward's Report: Nick Elks noted that there have been very few requests for help. He reported that as with last year despite his efforts to remain proactive, he has been unable to undertake many tower inspections this year and therefore has nothing further to report. He also confirmed that he had hoped to step down last year and now intends to do so this year.

The Treasurer's accounts have already been posted on the branch website. Steve Brown thanked Julian Burton for auditing accounts.

Hilary Hardie thanked officers for the reports.

100 Club Representative	H. Hardie

The above were all elected, unopposed.

There was discussion regarding the vacant Ringing Master position. Jim Bence suggested following the approach adopted by another branch, whereby several volunteers share responsibility for organising events rather than placing the full burden on the Ringing Master and Assistant Ringing Master.

The Steward's position also remains unfilled. Hilary Hardie proposed creating a co-ordinator role to liaise with stewards in active towers, enabling the pooling of experience and resources to support towers requiring assistance and lacking a dedicated steward.

The committee will consider these proposals in the coming weeks and report back to members.

12. DISCUSSION/NOMINATION OF BRANCH EVENTS & PROGRAMME FOR 2026 INCLUDING THE GUILD EVENTS

Branch 8-Bell Practice & Social Events: The current alternating schedule between St Kyneburgha, Castor (Fridays) and St Marys, Peterborough (Sundays) was discussed. Hilary Hardie reminded members that practices had previously been paused due to low attendance, and this low attendance has been the case again this year. Elaine Wilkinson noted that the programme has been particularly full, with both 8-bell and branch social event each month and suggested that these should be alternated. This view was generally supported by those present, and the committee will consider the matter further to find a solution. It was agreed that social events have been well received, though they should not be scheduled too closely together.

Junior Ringers: Hilary Hardie will be confirming some dates, and these will be posted on Petnet calendar for any young ringers interested.

13. ADDRESS BY VISITING GUILD OFFICER

Jim Bence reported that the Guild has produced bell handling posters for use in towers with ringers. He would like each tower to have a set and will be leaving copies for distribution.

He outlined changes to the Guild's practice schedule for next year. Attendance at the 10-bell practices has been variable, so the Guild intends to alternate these with 8-bell practices, running them in the odd numbered months. The next 10-bell practice will be in March. He explained the difficulty of finding a central venue due to the geographical spread of the Guild, noting that any host tower must have ground floor ringing & toilet facilities. Additionally, tea, coffee, and biscuits will be provided. The first 8-bell practice will be held at Weedon Bec, and further details to be published on the website.

Jim encouraged members to enter the 6-bell striking competition and explained that both method ringing and rounds & call changes which will be held in the Rutland Branch at Braunston. Updated rules will be available on the website and to be circulated to branch chairs and secretaries to share with members.

He also raised a concern regarding branch finances. While it is not inherently problematic, branch funds continue to grow, and very little is being spent. This is occurring across all branches and may attract scrutiny from the Charity Commission. Branches are encouraged to make appropriate use of their bell funds; for example, by applying for bell ropes. If funds remain unused, the Guild Treasurer may request that they be transferred to the Guild's central account.

Hilary Hardie noted that the branch does have a grants scheme, though there has been no recent demand for it. She also raised the question of how much a branch reasonably needs to retain for operational costs, which will require further discussion.

Sue Marsden asked whether any upcoming Guild restoration projects might place increased demand on the Guild bellringing fund, as this could influence future consideration of transferring some of the branch surplus to the Guild fund [revised 24/01/2026]. Jim Bence advised that this should be checked with John Beresford.

14. ANY OTHER BUSINESS

Hilary Hardie gave a gentle reminder that the annual subscriptions are due.

Sue Marsden reported that Oundle has several new learners, who are currently being taught at Cotterstock. She also noted that a number of ringers have recently moved into the Oundle area, which should support increased ringing at the Oundle tower. Additionally, as the existing ropes are in poor condition, it is likely that a rope-grant application will be submitted.

Hilary Hardie thanked everyone for attending.

16.13 MEETING CLOSED

A huge thank you everyone who contributes to making these sessions a success and especially to those of you who donate your time to help others progress. It really keeps bell ringing alive in this branch and my thanks especially to Jane Robinson, my assistant without whom the program for 2025 would have been impossible.

CASTOR RINGING SCHOOL 2025 REPORT – HILARY HARDIE

Castor Ringing School

Report to the Peterborough Branch AGM

It has been another busy year at the Ringing School. We continue with the progression from handling through to rounds and plain hunt to various methods.

In the year, a number of new ringers from various towers started to learn. Some tried it for one or two sessions, and then decided it wasn't for them. Wittering tower recruited a number of potential ringers, so in January we ran additional handling sessions for them after the main session. Unfortunately, only one of those has continued learning.

Many of the ringers who started ringing last year have progressed, and we now have a cohort ringing Plain Hunt on a regular basis, and they will move onto trebling and methods in time. It always surprises me that as one group progresses, another group of new learners arrive! Having learnt to handle a bell safely, a number of ringers have returned to their towers to learn methods.

At the 2024 AGM, it was suggested that the helpers could benefit from a session making sure that they are on top of all the methods that might be called. Two sessions on Saturday afternoons were held over the past year. They have been fun, and an enjoyable learning experience for us all. We will continue with these every 3-4 months over the next year.

Thank you to all those experienced ringers who give up their Saturday mornings to support us. It is much appreciated by the learners. A special thank you to Stuart Weston for calling most of the methods and keeping both the learners and helpers straight ably assisted by David Banks and others. Also, a thank you to a number of people who manage the sessions, either when I am away or teaching handling.

A particular thank you to Terry Wright who as School Administrator has organised the helpers through out the year, despite being unable to join us.

Attendance record

This year we have had 7 new ringers that are learning nicely, plus 5 or 6 persons who came and tried, but decided that ringing wasn't for them.

Total number of sessions, 45.

- Total number of pupils attending, 322. This equates to 38 fewer pupils than last year.
- Highest attendance of pupils attending an individual session, 11
- Lowest attendance of pupils attending an individual session, 4.
- Average attendance of pupils attending an individual session over 45 sessions, 6.

Total number of Tutors/Helpers attending, 328 - 6 more than in 2024.

- Highest attendance of Tutors/Helpers attending an individual session, 10.
- Lowest attendance of Tutors/Helpers attending an individual session, 5.

- Average attendance of Tutors/Helpers attending an individual session over 45 sessions, 8.2.

Over the last 12 months there has been a healthy number of Learning the Ropes achievements. The table below shows the number of passes made from Levels 1 to 5. Well done everybody and a big thank you to all teachers and helpers.

LEVEL 1	LEVEL 2	LEVEL 3	LEVEL 4	LEVEL 5
7	6	1	1	2

At level 4, we had 1 graduation from pupil to helper. Congratulations to mother and daughter, Clara and Holly Pedersen, for passing level 5.

Safeguarding

In the year the Peterborough Guild of Bell Ringers produced new safeguarding guidance for bell ringers, following discussions with the Diocesan Safeguarding Team. I reviewed the guidance and the School complies with the latest requirements, eg we have been keeping an attendance register for a number of years.

All those who teach at the School are DBS checked, many of them from other churches and roles across the Diocese. An additional column has been included in the register to identify these ringers.

I have encouraged all our pupils to undertake the relevant safeguarding training. Both Julian Burton and I have undertaken the Safeguarding Leadership Course in 2025.

Finances

The School continues to be in a good financial position, with reserves of £1,394. The main costs are the contribution to Castor Tower for heating, lighting etc. of £240pa, the ART annual donation, booklets for pupils and the provision of new stays.

The AGM agreed a minimum level of reserves set at around 18 months costs of £600. On that basis the £1 contribution from pupils continues, but helpers no longer need to contribute.
